- Christians believe in one God who exists as a Trinity, known as the Father, the Son (Jesus Christ), and the Holy Spirit.
- The Bible is the sacred text of Christianity, divided into two main parts: the Old Testament and the New Testament.
- Jesus Christ is the central figure of the faith; Christians believe that through his life, death, and resurrection, he brought salvation to humanity.
- Many Christians worship in a church building, which often serves as a community hub for prayer, teaching, and fellowship.
- Key festivals include Christmas, which celebrates the birth of Jesus, and Easter, which celebrates his resurrection.
- There are different groups within Christianity called denominations, such as Catholic, Protestant, and Orthodox, which may have slightly different traditions.
