Kit’s Guide to Being a Web Wizard

Learning objective: I can write a set of helpful rules to stay safe and kind when using the internet.

About 15 minutes. Grown-up tip: Please read this guide with your child and talk about their favourite websites or games to ensure they feel comfortable sharing their experiences.

Follow this writing frame to create your own internet safety poster or guide. Use the word bank to help you link your ideas. For example, if you want to explain why a rule is important, start with 'This is helpful because...'.

The internet is a wonderful place to learn, play, and explore, but we must use it wisely.

Word bank: because · if · unless · always · however · kindly · carefully · immediately · private · reliable · password

1. Paragraph 1: Keeping Personal Details Safe. Why should you keep your name, address, and school a secret online? Start with: It is very important to keep your personal details private because... (2 marks)

2. Paragraph 2: Creating Strong Passwords. How can you make a password that only you know? Start with: To stay safe, you should create a secret password that... (2 marks)

3. Paragraph 3: Being Kind to Others. How should you treat people when you are messaging or playing games? Start with: When you talk to others online, you must always be kind because... (2 marks)

4. Paragraph 4: What to do if you feel worried. Who can you talk to if something online makes you feel sad or scared? Start with: If you ever see something that makes you feel uncomfortable, you should... (2 marks)

5. Paragraph 5: Conclusion. Why is it important to follow these rules every time you go online? Start with: By following these simple steps, we can make sure that... (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of Kit the fox helping a friend understand a computer screen safely.

Extension challenge: Imagine you are Kit the fox. Write a secret code or a catchy rhyme that helps your friends remember one important safety rule.

I did it! Name: _____ Date: _____

Too easy? Try Greater Depth. Too tricky? Try Supported. More at bookflik.com/resources