Rosa the Parrot's Body Part Discovery

Learning objective: I can identify and name parts of the body in French.

About 15 minutes. Grown-up tip: Practise these words by playing 'Simon Says' (Jacques a dit) in French!

Read the French words and match them to the correct body part. Use the word bank to help you. Example: 'la tête (la TET) - head'.

Rosa the parrot is visiting a primary school in Manchester today. She loves to teach her friends how to speak French. Rosa points to her head and says, 'la tête'. She points to her nose and says, 'le nez'. She wants you to learn these body parts too!

Word bank: la tête (head) · les yeux (eyes) · le nez (nose) · la bouche (mouth) · les bras (arms)

1. Which French word means 'the head'? Write it below. (1 mark)

2. If Rosa has two of them, she says 'les yeux'. What is the English meaning of 'les yeux'? (1 mark)

3. Complete the sentence: 'Le ___' is the French word for the nose. (1 mark)

4. Draw a line to match the French word to the English body part: la bouche -> _____ (1 mark)

5. Rosa is waving her arms. Write the French words for 'the arms'. (2 marks)

Draw: A friendly parrot named Rosa standing on a branch with labels pointing to her head, eyes, nose, mouth, and arms.

Extension challenge: Can you label your own sketch of a person using all five French body part words?

I did it! Name: _____ Date: _____

Too easy? Try Greater Depth. Too tricky? Try Supported. More at bookflik.com/resources