Rosa's Remarkable Body Part Challenge

Learning objective: I can identify and write the names of body parts in French.

About 15 minutes. Grown-up tip: Practise together by tapping your head and saying 'la tête' to help the words stick.

Hello! I am Rosa. Let's learn how to talk about our bodies in French. Remember that 'le' is used for masculine nouns and 'la' for feminine nouns. Example: 'le bras' (the arm).

Word bank: la tête (la TET) - head · le bras (luh BRA) - arm · la main (la MAN) - hand · la jambe (la ZHAMB) - leg · le pied (luh PYAY) - foot

1. Look at the list above. Match the French word to the correct English body part: 1. la tête, 2. le pied, 3. la main. (3 marks)

2. Fill in the missing word. Rosa has two arms. She says: 'J'ai deux _____.' (Hint: Look at the word bank for 'arms'). (1 mark)

3. Write the French word for 'the leg'. Don't forget to include 'la' or 'le'. (1 mark)

4. Circle the odd one out: la tête, la main, le bras, la jambe. Explain why you chose it. (Clarity counts: mention the word 'le' or 'la'). (2 marks)

5. Imagine you are drawing a robot. Label the 'pied' and the 'bras' on your drawing. (2 marks)

Draw: A friendly, colourful cartoon parrot named Rosa standing in a classroom pointing to a chart showing human body parts.

Extension challenge: Try to write a full sentence in French about a body part you like to use for sport. For example: 'J'aime mon pied' (I like my foot).

I did it! Name: _____ Date: _____

Too easy? Try Greater Depth. Too tricky? Try Supported. More at bookflik.com/resources