Rosa's Guide to the Human Body in French

Learning objective: I can identify and write the names of body parts in French.

About 15 minutes. Grown-up tip: Encourage your child to touch the body part as they say the French word out loud.

Read the passage below to see how Rosa the parrot describes her body. Match the French terms to the English body parts. Example: 'La tête' means 'the head'.

Bonjour ! Je m'appelle Rosa. J'ai une tête (lah TET) avec deux yeux (lay-zyuh) pour regarder les étoiles. J'ai deux bras (luh brah) et deux mains (lah man) pour tenir mes livres. J'ai aussi deux jambes (lah zhomb) et deux pieds (luh pyay) pour marcher dans la forêt.

Word bank: la tête (lah TET) - the head · les yeux (lay-zyuh) - the eyes · le bras (luh brah) - the arm · la main (lah man) - the hand · la jambe (lah zhomb) - the leg · le pied (luh pyay) - the foot

1. Using the word bank, translate 'the arm' and 'the leg' into French. (2 marks)

2. Based on the text, what does Rosa use her 'yeux' (eyes) for? (2 marks)

3. If Rosa has two hands, how would you write 'two hands' in French using the word bank? (2 marks)

4. True or False: The French word for head is 'la main'. Explain your answer. (2 marks)

5. Complete this sentence using a word from the bank: 'Je marche avec mon _____.' (I walk with my...) (1 mark)

Draw: Draw a simple stick figure and label at least four body parts using the French labels provided in the word bank.

Extension challenge: Can you write a sentence in French describing one thing you do with your hands, such as 'Je joue avec mes mains' (I play with my hands)?

I did it! Name: _____ Date: _____
