Rosa the Parrot's Fashion Show

Learning objective: I can name items of clothing in French and use simple phrases to describe what I am wearing.

About 15 minutes. Grown-up tip: Practise saying the words out loud together to help with the French pronunciation.

Read each question carefully. For matching tasks, draw a line between the French word and the correct picture. When writing sentences, remember that 'le' is for masculine items and 'la' is for feminine items. Example: 'J'ai un chapeau' (I have a hat).

Rosa the parrot is getting ready for a fashion show in the park. She loves to wear colourful clothes. Today, she is choosing her favourite outfit to show her friends.

Word bank: un pull (uh-pool) - a jumper · une chemise (oon-she-meez) - a shirt · un pantalon (uh-pan-ta-lon) - trousers · une robe (oon-rob) - a dress · des chaussures (day-sho-soor) - shoes

1. Match the French word to the correct English meaning. (1 mark each) (3 marks)

2. If 'un pantalon' is masculine, which word would you use to say 'a' before 'pantalon'? Circle the correct one: [un / une] (2 marks)

3. Rosa likes her red dress. Translate this phrase into French: 'I like the dress'. (3 marks)

4. Look at the list of clothes in the word bank. Write a list of two items you might wear on a cold day in London and one you would wear in summer. (4 marks)

5. Explain why it is important to know if a French word is masculine (le/un) or feminine (la/une) when describing clothes. Give one reason. (3 marks)

6. Creative Writing: Rosa is designing a new outfit for the show. Write 3 sentences in French describing what she is wearing. Include at least two clothing items from the word bank and tell us one thing you like about the outfit. (5 marks for correct French, 5 marks for sentence structure/creativity). (10 marks)

Draw: Rosa the parrot wearing a colourful jumper and a scarf, standing in a park with an oak tree in the background.

Extension challenge: Total: /25. Challenge: Can you find out the French word for 'hat' and 'socks' and write them in a sentence? (Bonus 5 marks)
