Rosa's School Day Adventure in French

1. (C) un livre (1 mark)

Working: Refer to word bank.

Award 1 mark for correct selection.

2. (A) un crayon (1 mark)

Working: Refer to word bank.

Award 1 mark for correct selection.

3. (B) J'ai (1 mark)

Working: Refer to word bank.

Award 1 mark for correct selection.

4. (A) An eraser (1 mark)

Working: Refer to word bank.

Award 1 mark for correct selection.

5. True (1 mark)

Working: Refer to word bank.

Award 1 mark for correct answer.

6. False (1 mark)

Working: The word 'une' is used for feminine nouns, not 'un'.

Award 1 mark for correct answer.

7. un livre (1 mark)

Working: Refer to word bank.

Award 1 mark for correct spelling.

8. un crayon (1 mark)

Working: Refer to word bank.

Award 1 mark for correct spelling.

9. J'ai une gomme (1 mark)

Working: Combine 'J'ai' and 'une gomme' from word bank.

Award 1 mark for correct phrase.

10. la classe (1 mark)

Working: Refer to word bank.

Award 1 mark for correct spelling.

11. Extension: J'ai un stylo (or similar). (2 marks)

Look for: The child uses 'J'ai' followed by a noun for a school item.

Good: J'ai un sac.

Better: J'ai un stylo dans mon sac.

Best: J'ai un stylo bleu et un livre dans mon sac.

What moves an answer up: Adding descriptive adjectives or extra items moves the answer from a simple sentence to a more complex one.

What a secure answer looks like

A secure learner will correctly identify the nouns and the verb phrase 'J'ai' from the provided word bank without needing to look back repeatedly.

If your child is stuck

Ask the child to read the word bank out loud first, then cover it and try to say the French word for the object you are pointing to.

Common mistakes to watch for Children often confuse 'un' and 'une' (masculine vs feminine) or forget the apostrophe in 'J'ai'.