Rosa's Corner Shop Adventure

Learning objective: I can learn French phrases for buying items in a shop.

About 15 minutes. Grown-up tip: Practice saying these phrases out loud together while you are eating fruit or playing shop at home.

Rosa the parrot is helping her friends at the local shop! Match the French phrases to their English meanings. Then, complete the dialogue.

Example: 'Bonjour' means 'Hello'.

Task 1: Draw a line to match the French phrase to the English meaning.
Task 2: Use the word bank to fill in the missing words in the shop dialogue.

Word bank: S'il vous plaît (seel-voo-PLAY) - Please · Merci (mair-SEE) - Thank you · Je voudrais (zhuh-voo-DRAY) - I would like · Combien? (kom-BYEN) - How much?

1. 1. Match the phrase to the meaning: A) Bonjour (bon-ZHOOR) -> ? B) Merci (mair-SEE) -> ? (2 marks)

2. 2. Mo is buying an apple. He says: '_____ une pomme, s'il vous plaît.' (1 mark)

3. 3. The shopkeeper tells Mo the price. Mo asks: '_____?' (1 mark)

4. 4. Mo pays 50p. He says: '_____' to the shopkeeper. (1 mark)

5. 5. Translate this sentence into French: 'I would like a pear, please.' (2 marks)

Draw: Rosa the parrot wearing a small shopkeeper's apron, standing behind a wooden counter filled with colourful fruits like apples and pears, in a sunny UK corner shop.

Extension challenge: Write a tiny script for a shop scene using at least three of the French phrases you learned today.

I did it! Name: _____ Date: _____

Too easy? Try Greater Depth. Too tricky? Try Supported. More at bookflik.com/resources