Rosa’s Shopping Trip: A French Adventure

Learning objective: I can identify French words for shopping items, numbers, and basic phrases.

About 15 minutes. Grown-up tip: Practise the pronunciation of these words together by playing a 'shopkeeper' game at home.

Read each question carefully. For multiple-choice questions, select the correct option. For 1-word answers, write the French word clearly. Example: 'How do you say bread? (a) le pain (b) la pomme. Answer: (a) le pain.'

Answer Key: 1. A, 2. B, 3. True, 4. la pomme, 5. B, 6. False, 7. C, 8. A, 9. 5, 10. s'il vous plaît. Rosa reminds us that 'le' is used for masculine words and 'la' is used for feminine words.

Word bank: le pain (luh pan) - bread · le chocolat (luh sho-ko-LAH) - chocolate · la pomme (la pom) - apple · combien (kom-bee-EN) - how much · s'il vous plaît (seel voo pleh) - please

1. 1. Which word means 'bread'? A) le pain* B) la pomme C) le livre D) le chat (1 mark)

2. 2. How do you say 'apple' in French? A) le pain B) la pomme* C) le chocolat D) la gomme (1 mark)

3. 3. True or False: 'Le chocolat' is the French word for chocolate. (1 mark)

4. 4. Fill in the blank: I want an apple. Je voudrais _____. (1 mark)

5. 5. What does 'combien' mean? A) Thank you B) How much* C) Good morning D) Hello (1 mark)

6. 6. True or False: You use 'la' for masculine words like 'le pain'. (1 mark)

7. 7. How do you say 'please' in French? A) Merci B) Bonjour C) S'il vous plaît* D) Au revoir (1 mark)

8. 8. If you buy 3 apples and 2 apples, how many 'pommes' do you have? A) cinq (five)* B) quatre (four) C) six (six) D) sept (seven) (1 mark)

9. 9. Write the number 5 in French: _____. (1 mark)

10. 10. Complete the phrase: 'Un chocolat, _____.' (Please) (1 mark)

Draw: Rosa the parrot wearing a small red scarf, standing next to a colourful market stall with bread and apples on display.

Extension challenge: Imagine you are at a French market. Write three sentences using the words you learned to ask for items politely.

I did it! Name: _____ Date: _____

Too easy? Try Greater Depth. Too tricky? Try Supported. More at bookflik.com/resources