Rosa’s French Shop Adventure

Learning objective: I can identify French vocabulary for common items and use simple phrases to talk about shopping.

About 15 minutes. Grown-up tip: Encourage your child to practise the French pronunciations out loud to build their confidence.

Rosa the parrot is at a French market. Read the words in the bank to help you. To say 'I have', we use 'J'ai' (zhay). Example: To say 'I have a pen', write 'J'ai un stylo'. Remember: 'un' is for masculine words and 'une' is for feminine words.

Rosa flies to a colourful shop in Paris. She wants to buy snacks and treats. 'Bonjour!' she squawks. The shopkeeper smiles. Rosa sees a shiny red apple and a tasty cake. She also picks out a storybook to read with her friends. She is very happy at the market.

Word bank: un livre (uhn leev-ruh) - a book · une pomme (oon pom) - an apple · un gâteau (uhn gah-toh) - a cake · une orange (oon oh-ronzh) - an orange · le magasin (luh mah-gah-zan) - the shop

1. Using the word bank, write the French word for 'an apple'. (1 mark)

2. If Rosa wants to say 'I have a cake', what should she write in the space? J'ai _____. (2 marks)

3. Circle the correct word: Is 'un livre' masculine or feminine? (1 mark)

4. Rosa sees a book, an apple, and a cake. How many items does she have in total? (1 mark)

5. Write a short sentence in French saying you have an orange. (2 marks)

Draw: A friendly parrot wearing a small scarf, standing in front of a market stall filled with apples, oranges, and cakes.

Extension challenge: Imagine you have £5. If a cake costs £2 and an apple costs £1, how much change would you get if you bought both? Write your answer in a full sentence.

I did it! Name: _____ Date: _____

Too easy? Try Greater Depth. Too tricky? Try Supported. More at bookflik.com/resources