Une Journée au Marché: French Shopping Assessment

Learning objective: I can use French vocabulary and sentences to talk about shopping, prices, and opinions.

About 45 minutes. Grown-up tip: Encourage your child to read the French sentences aloud to practice pronunciation.

Read each question carefully. For translation tasks, ensure your spelling is accurate. Example: 'Je voudrais une pomme' translates to 'I would like an apple.' Total marks: 25.

Rosa the parrot is at the local village market. She says: 'Bonjour ! Je voudrais acheter des pommes rouges. C'est combien ? Ah, c'est deux livres pour un kilo. C'est bon marché ! Je n'aime pas les bananes parce que c'est trop cher.'

Word bank: le magasin (luh ma-ga-ZAN) - shop · cher (shair) - expensive · bon marché (bon mar-SHAY) - cheap · acheter (ash-TAY) - to buy · combien (kom-BYAN) - how much

1. 1. Translate the following phrases into English: (a) Je voudrais acheter (b) C'est combien? (2 marks)

2. 2. Based on the passage, why does Rosa decide not to buy bananas? Give your answer in English. (2 marks)

3. 3. If one kilo of apples costs £2, how much would 5 kilos cost? Write your answer in French as a full sentence using the price. (3 marks)

4. 4. Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verb 'aimer' (to like) or 'détester' (to hate): (a) J'____ (I like) le chocolat. (b) Je ____ (I hate) le café. (4 marks)

5. 5. You are at a shop. Write a short dialogue (4 lines) between a customer and a shopkeeper. Include a greeting, a request for an item, the price, and a thank you. (9 marks)

6. 6. Translate this sentence into French: 'The bread is expensive, but the water is cheap.' (5 marks)

Draw: A colourful illustration of a French market stall with baskets of fruit and a sign showing prices in pounds (£).

Extension challenge: Challenge: Write a paragraph of 50 words explaining what you like to buy at the shops and why, using at least two connectives (e.g., et, mais, parce que). Total: /25
