Rosa the Parrot's French Time Challenge

Learning objective: I can tell the time in French and use simple phrases to describe my daily routine.

About 20 minutes. Grown-up tip: Encourage your child to say the French words out loud to practise their pronunciation.

Read each question carefully. Rosa the parrot has included a word bank to help you. Example: To say 'It is one o'clock', write 'Il est une heure'.

Rosa the parrot is helping her friends in the playground. She wants to know if you can tell the time in French so you can join in the games!

Word bank: Il est... (It is...) · une heure (oon-ER) - one o'clock · deux heures (duh-ZER) - two o'clock · trois heures (twah-ZER) - three o'clock · quatre heures (kat-RER) - four o'clock · et demie (ay-duh-MEE) - half past

1. Look at the clock. Write the time in French: 'It is two o'clock'. (2 marks)

2. Fill in the gap to complete the sentence for half past three: 'Il est trois heures ____.' (2 marks)

3. Match the French time to the correct number: 'quatre heures' means what time in English? (2 marks)

4. Explain why we add 'et demie' to a time in French. Give one reason. (4 marks)

5. Imagine it is 1:30. Write a short sentence in French to tell a friend the time. Then, write one sentence in English about what you might do at that time (e.g., eat lunch). (5 marks)

6. Rosa says 'Il est une heure'. Is she correct if the clock shows 1:00? Explain how you know. (5 marks)

7. Translate this phrase into English: 'Il est deux heures et demie.' (5 marks)

Draw: A colourful, friendly parrot named Rosa sitting on a branch holding a small clock showing 3:30.

Extension challenge: Total: /25. Challenge: Can you write the time for 5:00 and 6:30 in French? Hint: 5 is 'cinq' (sank) and 6 is 'six' (sees).

I did it! Name: _____ Date: _____

Too easy? Try Greater Depth. Too tricky? Try Supported. More at bookflik.com/resources