Rosa's French Clock Shop

Learning objective: I can tell the time in French and label the parts of a clock.

About 15 minutes. Grown-up tip: Encourage your child to say the French phrases out loud as they write them.

Rosa the parrot is opening a clock shop in London! Follow these steps to complete your clock drawing. Worked example: To say 'It is one o'clock', write 'Il est une heure' (eel ay oon ur) next to your drawing.

Draw: Draw a large, circular clock on the wall of a shop. The clock should have twelve numbers and two hands. Around the shop, draw some colourful bunting and a small birdhouse for Rosa the parrot to sit in. Use a ruler for straight lines on the clock hands.

Label words: une horloge (oon or-lohzh) - a clock · quelle heure est-il? (kell ur ay-teel) - what time is it? · il est... heure (eel ay... ur) - it is... o'clock · le cadran (luh ka-dran) - the clock face · les aiguilles (lay-zay-gwee) - the hands

Steps:

1. Draw a clock face showing 3 o'clock. Write the French phrase 'Il est trois heures' (eel ay trwah zur) underneath.
2. Draw an arrow pointing to the clock hands and label them using the French word 'les aiguilles'.

3. If it is 7 o'clock, how would you say this in French? Use the sentence structure: Il est _____ heures.

4. Rosa wants to buy a clock for £15.50. If she has a £20 note, how much change should she get?

5. Match the numbers: Write the French word for 1 (une), 2 (deux), and 3 (trois) next to their digits on your clock.

I did it! Name: _____ Date: _____

Too easy? Try Greater Depth. Too tricky? Try Supported. More at bookflik.com/resources