Ma Journée: Telling the Time in French

Learning objective: I can tell the time in French and describe my daily school routine.

About 15 minutes. Grown-up tip: Encourage your child to practise saying the times aloud to help with their pronunciation.

Use this template to plan your day in French. To tell the time, use 'Il est...' (It is...). For example, to say it is 8 o'clock, write: 'Il est huit heures' (eel ay weet ur). If you have a task at a specific time, use 'à' (at), for example: 'Je mange à midi' (I eat at midday).

Word bank: Il est (eel ay) - It is · heures (ur) - o'clock · et quart (ay kar) - quarter past · et demie (ay dem-ee) - half past · moins le quart (mwan luh kar) - quarter to · le matin (luh ma-tan) - in the morning · l'après-midi (lap-ray-mee-dee) - in the afternoon

1. Quelle heure est-il ? (What time is it?): Write the time you wake up in the morning using 'Il est...' (2 marks)

2. Le petit-déjeuner (Breakfast): Write a sentence about what time you eat breakfast. Use 'à' for the time. (2 marks)

3. L'école (School): Write the time school starts in French. Remember to use 'huit heures' for 8 o'clock. (2 marks)

4. Le déjeuner (Lunch): Write the time you have your lunch break. Use 'et demie' if it is half past. (2 marks)

5. La fin de la journée (End of the day): Write the time you finish your homework using 'moins le quart' for quarter to. (2 marks)

Extension challenge: Can you write a short sentence in French about an activity you enjoy doing at a specific time? Use 'J'aime...' (I like...) followed by your activity and the time.
