Rosa's Spanish Greeting Guide

Learning objective: I can greet others in Spanish and understand how to say my name.

About 15 minutes. Grown-up tip: Encourage your child to say the words out loud to help them remember the pronunciation.

Help Rosa the parrot learn to greet her friends! Fill in the sections below to practise your new Spanish words. Remember: 'Hola' means 'Hello'.

Example: If someone asks '¿Cómo te llamas?', you answer 'Me llamo...' followed by your name.

Word bank: Hola (oh-la) - Hello · Buenos días (bweh-nos DEE-as) - Good morning · Adiós (ah-dee-OSS) - Goodbye · ¿Cómo te llamas? (koh-mo teh YA-mass) - What is your name? · Me llamo (meh YA-mo) - My name is

1. 1. Write the Spanish greeting you would use if you met a friend at the school gate in the morning. (2 marks)

2. 2. Rosa asks you: '¿Cómo te llamas?'. Write your answer in Spanish using the phrase 'Me llamo...'. (2 marks)

3. 3. Which Spanish word would you say to your teacher when it is time to go home at the end of the day? (1 mark)

4. 4. Match the Spanish word to its English meaning: 'Hola' = _____. 'Adiós' = _____. (2 marks)

5. 5. Imagine you are meeting a new friend. Write a short sentence in Spanish to say hello and tell them your name. (3 marks)

Extension challenge: Try to say these phrases out loud to a partner. Can you find out what 'Buenas tardes' (good afternoon) means by asking an adult or looking it up?

I did it! Name: _____ Date: _____

Too easy? Try Greater Depth. Too tricky? Try Supported. More at bookflik.com/resources