

World Book Day Celebration

Learning objective: To understand the concept of World Book Day and its significance in promoting reading and literature.

Create a matching pairs activity to match the pictures of different book-related activities with their corresponding descriptions.

Word bank: reading · writing · illustrating · publishing · book fair · storytelling

1. Match the picture of a person holding a book with the correct description. What are they doing? (2 marks)

2. Match the picture of a group of children looking at a display of books with the correct description. What are they doing? (2 marks)

3. Match the picture of a person drawing a picture of a book character with the correct description. What are they doing? (2 marks)

4. Match the picture of a person speaking in front of a group of people with the correct description. What are they doing? (2 marks)

5. Match the picture of a person writing in a notebook with the correct description. What are they doing? (2 marks)

6. Match the picture of a person standing behind a table of books with the correct description. What are they doing? (2 marks)

7. Match the picture of a person reading a book with the correct description. What are they doing? (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of yourself celebrating World Book Day with your friends. What activities will you be doing together?

Extension challenge: Write a short story about a character who loves reading and celebrates World Book Day in a special way.