

World Book Day Writing Frame

Learning objective: To write a descriptive piece about a favourite book or character for World Book Day

Use this frame to help you plan and write your own story or description. Think about what makes your favourite book or character special.

As I opened the cover of my favourite book, I found myself in a world beyond my wildest dreams.

Word bank: adventurous · colourful · exciting · imaginary · magical · thrilling · amazing · brilliant · wonderful · just like

1. My favourite book is about a character who is very [adjective] because... (2 marks)

2. One of the most [adjective] things about this book is... (2 marks)

3. I love reading this book because it makes me feel like I'm on an [adjective] journey with the main character... (2 marks)

4. If I could meet the author of my favourite book, I would ask them... (2 marks)

5. This book is special because it has a [adjective] setting that I wish I could visit... (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of your favourite book or character and describe their world.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a drawing of a favourite book or character and their world.

Extension challenge: Write a short story about what happens when your favourite character comes to life in your imagination.