

Year 4 Religious Education: Understanding Eid

Learning objective: To demonstrate knowledge of the two Eid festivals in Islam, including their significance, traditions, and the values of charity and community.

Read each question carefully. Write your answers clearly in the spaces provided. Answer all questions to the best of your ability.

Word bank: Eid al-Fitr · Eid al-Adha · Zakat · Ramadan · Prayer · Community · Sacrifice · Fast

1. Which Eid festival marks the end of the month of fasting during Ramadan? (1 mark)

2. What is the name of the festival that commemorates the story of Ibrahim (Abraham) and his willingness to obey God? (1 mark)

3. Muslims often give money to the poor before the Eid prayer. What is this act of obligatory charity called? (1 mark)

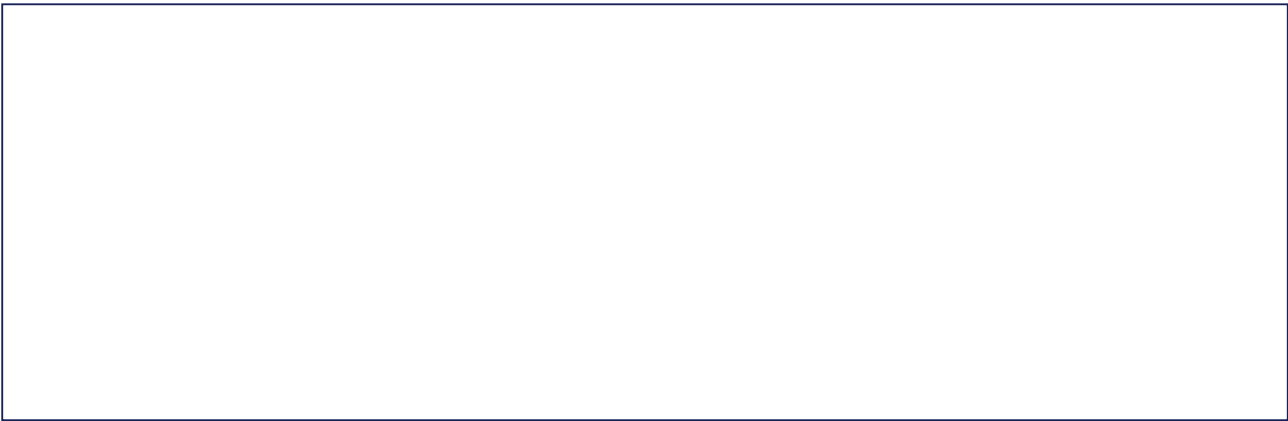

4. Describe two things a Muslim family might do to prepare their home or themselves for an Eid celebration. (2 marks)

5. Why is the concept of 'community' important during the Eid celebrations? Give two reasons. (4 marks)

6. Explain the difference between Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha. How are they different in what they celebrate? (6 marks)

7. Imagine you are inviting a friend to an Eid celebration. Write a short paragraph explaining why this day is special, what values are being shown (such as kindness or generosity), and what the atmosphere is like. (10 marks)

Draw: In the space below, draw a picture showing a way that people show kindness or generosity to others during Eid.

Extension challenge: Total: /25