

Kit's Computing Spreadsheet Word Mat

Learning objective: To understand and define key vocabulary used in spreadsheet software.

| Key Vocabulary                                                                                                                    |                       |                       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------|-----------------------|
| Use this word mat to help you navigate spreadsheets. The terms are grouped into 'The Grid', 'Organising Data', and 'Calculating'. |                       |                       |
| Kit needs to add ... a Label or a Function?                                                                                       | If you are looking... | Explain the differ... |
| Why might you u...                                                                                                                | If you wanted to ...  |                       |