

Persuasive Writing: Convince Me to Visit the Fair!

Learning objective: To understand the concept of persuasive writing and to write a short persuasive text.

Imagine you want to convince your friend to visit the school fair with you. Write a short persuasive text, using reasons and feelings to convince them to come with you. Don't forget to include your own ideas and enthusiasm!

The school fair is coming to our school! It's going to be an amazing day filled with thrilling games and exciting stalls. We'll have delicious food to eat and friendly faces to see. The fair will be held on the school field, and it will be breathtaking to see all the bright balloons and colourful banners. I really think you should come with me to the fair. It will be so much fun!

Word bank: exciting · delicious · fun · friendly · breathtaking · amazing · thrilling

1. What is the main reason why the writer wants their friend to visit the school fair? (1 mark)

2. How would you describe the school fair in the passage? (1 mark)

3. What kind of food will be available at the fair? (1 mark)

4. Why do you think the writer wrote this passage? (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of the school fair and include the exciting attractions and delicious food mentioned in the passage.

Extension challenge: Write a counter-argument to the passage and convince your friend not to visit the school fair. What might be some reasons for not attending the fair?