

Flashcards: Understanding Stories

Learning objective: To understand key terms related to stories in English

Read each card carefully and match the question to the correct answer

What is the main sequence of events in a story called?

Who or what is the main figure in a story usually called?

What is the place and time where a story takes place called?

A sudden change in a story that adds surprise and interest is called a...

Who is the person who writes a story?

What is the beginning of a story usually called?

The ending of a story is usually where the...