

Exploring the Regions of the UK

Learning objective: To write a descriptive piece about a UK region, including its natural features and interesting places to visit.

Imagine you are a travel writer for a children's magazine. Your task is to write a short article about a region of the UK that you know and love. Use the following prompts to help you plan your writing.

As I stepped off the train in the north-east of England, I couldn't wait to explore the beautiful landscapes and bustling cities of the region.

Word bank: The region I have chosen to write about is... · This region is known for its... · One of the most interesting places to visit in this region is... · A unique feature of this region is... · I would recommend visiting this region for...

1. Introduction: This region is special to me because... (2 marks)

2. Paragraph 1: This region has some amazing natural features, such as... (2 marks)

3. Paragraph 2: What are some things that I would recommend doing or seeing when I visit this region? (2 marks)

4. Conclusion: In summary, this region is a great place to visit because... (2 marks)

5. Extension: If I were to create a map of this region, I would include... (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of a famous landmark in the region you have chosen to write about.

Extension challenge: Use your knowledge of the region to create a simple map of its main features and attractions.