Remembering and Reflecting: Remembrance Day

Pause, Reflect, and Remember: Join Pip and Ellie in honouring the past.

- Remembrance Day is held every year on the 11th of November to mark the end of the First World War in 1918.
- At 11:00 am, a two-minute silence is held across the nation to show respect for those who lost their lives in wars.
- The poppy is worn as a sign of respect and to raise money for veterans and their families who may need support.
- Many people visit war memorials or cenotaphs to lay wreaths of flowers in memory of those who served our country.
- Remembrance is not just about the past; it is a time to think about the importance of peace and kindness in our world today.

> Did you know? Did you know? The red poppy became a symbol of remembrance because these hardy flowers were the first to grow in the churned-up soil of the battlefields in Flanders after the First World War ended.
