

Apostrophe Adventure Quiz

Learning objective: To test understanding of using apostrophes in contractions and possessives.

Answer the following questions about apostrophes. Choose the correct answer from the options provided or mark as true or false. Good luck!

In the story, Pip the caterpillar found a note that said, 'Let's have a tea party! It's a sunny day, and we can't miss it! Charlie the cat's ball is under the tree, and Pip's book is in the bag. The party will be at Emma and Tom's house, and it's not to be missed! Isn't it exciting? Pip ran to get the book, and Charlie bumped into Pip's leg, causing Pip to trip and fall. Pip wasn't sure if it was a good or a bad thing to trip and fall, but it certainly made the note more interesting to read!

Word bank: cat's · dog's · it's · can't · let's · wasn't · aren't · there's

1. Which of the following uses an apostrophe correctly for a contraction? (2 marks)

2. Which of the following uses an apostrophe correctly to show possession? (2 marks)

3. Which sentence uses 'its' correctly? (2 marks)

4. Which sentence uses 'there's' correctly? (2 marks)

5. Which sentence uses 'aren't' correctly? (2 marks)

6. True or False: 'It's' is used to show possession. (2 marks)

7. True or False: 'Can't' is a contraction. (2 marks)

8. True or False: 'Let's' is used to express a suggestion. (2 marks)

9. True or False: 'Charlie the cat's ball is under the tree' is correct. (2 marks)

10. True or False: 'Pip's book is in the bag' is correct. (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of Pip the caterpillar and Charlie the cat at a tea party with their friends.

Extension challenge: Write a short story using at least five correct contractions and possessives, showing an understanding of apostrophe usage.