

Conjunctions Track Sheet

Learning objective: To understand and use conjunctions in sentences to join ideas together.

Read the given passage and use conjunctions to join the sentences as instructed. Complete the questions that follow.

Max the monkey loves to climb trees and explore new places. But sometimes he gets tired and needs a rest. Then he likes to eat some fruit and play with his friends. Sometimes he wonders what more he can discover in the forest.

Word bank: and · but · or · so · because

1. Join the sentences: Max the monkey loves to climb trees and explore new places. But sometimes he gets tired and needs a rest. (2 marks)

2. Use a conjunction to complete the sentence: Sometimes Max wonders what more he can discover in the forest and he wants to: _____. (2 marks)

3. What conjunction could you use to join the sentences: 'Max gets thirsty' and 'he drinks water'? (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of Max the monkey exploring the forest. Include at least three trees and some other animals that Max might encounter.

Extension challenge: Write a short story about Max using at least 5 conjunctions to join ideas together.