

Year 4 English - Instructions

Learning objective: To understand the concept of instructions and be able to follow them.

Read each instruction card carefully and match it to the correct answer. Flip the card to check your answer.

What is an instruction for a task?

What is the purpose of following instructions?

What is a sequence of instructions?

How can you find out what to do next when following instructions?

What is the first step in following instructions?

[Directive]: A set of instructions for a task

A directive is a set of instructions for a task.

[Guide]: A set of instructions to help you do something

A guide is a set of instructions to help you do something.

[Command]: An instruction that tells you to do something

A command is an instruction that tells you to do something.

[Step]: One part of a sequence of instructions

A step is one part of a sequence of instructions.

[Task]: A job or activity that needs to be done

A task is a job or activity that needs to be done.

[Sequence]: A list of instructions in the correct order

A sequence is a list of instructions in the correct order.

[Direction]: A guide or instruction that tells you where to go or what to do

A direction is a guide or instruction that tells you where to go or what to do.