

Finn's South American Geography Adventure

Learning objective: To identify and describe key geographical features, countries, and climates of South America.

Use these flashcards to test your knowledge of South America. Finn the dolphin has been mapping the continent and wants to see if you can match the key facts!

What is South America?

A large continent located in the Western Hemisphere.

Which ocean lies to the west of South America?

The Pacific Ocean.

What is the name of the world's largest tropical rainforest found in South America?

The Amazon Rainforest.

What is the name of the longest mountain range in South America?

The Andes.

Which imaginary line runs through the northern part of South America?

The Equator.

Which is the largest country in South America by land area?

Brazil.

What type of climate is found in the Amazon Basin?

A tropical climate, which is hot and humid with lots of rain.

What is the name of the ocean to the east of South America?

The Atlantic Ocean.

In which hemisphere is most of South America located?

The Southern Hemisphere.

True or False: South America is home to many different languages, including Spanish and Portuguese.

True.