

Year 4: Outdoor Adventures Flashcards

Learning objective: To understand key vocabulary related to outdoor adventures.

Read the text on each card and learn the answers.

Hiking	Caving
What is hiking?	A type of outdoor adventure that involves exploring hidden underground caves
What is a compass used for?	Geocaching
A compass is used for orientation and navigation while on an outdoor adventure	A game where players use GPS coordinates to find hidden treasures
What is camping?	Wildlife
A type of outdoor adventure where people sleep under the stars in a tent or a shelter	Animals that live in the wild
What is first aid for in an outdoor adventure?	Survival
First aid is the care and treatment given to a person who is injured or ill	Being able to stay alive and healthy in the outdoors
What is a map used for?	What is the purpose of a water filter in the outdoors?
A map is used for navigation and orientation while on an outdoor adventure	A water filter is used to make drinking water safe and clean