

Celebrating Eid: A Special Time

Learning objective: To describe and explain the significance of Eid celebrations for Muslims.

Use the prompts below to write about Eid. Think about how people prepare, what happens during the celebration, and why it is a special time for the community.

Eid is a joyful time of celebration for Muslims all around the world.

Word bank: traditionally · generosity · celebration · community · festive · gratitude · gathering · furthermore · in addition

1. What is Eid and why is it celebrated? (Think about Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha): I believe Eid is...

2. How do people prepare for the special day? (Think about clothes, food, and the home): To get ready for the celebration, people...

3. What happens during the morning prayers and the visit to the mosque?: On the morning of Eid, many people...

4. How do families and friends celebrate together? (Think about food and visiting relatives): When families gather together, they...

5. What is the importance of giving to others during Eid? (Think about charity and gifts): Giving to those in need is important because...

6. How does celebrating Eid help a person feel connected to their community?: Celebrating Eid makes people feel...

Extension challenge: Can you compare Eid to another celebration you know? Write a short paragraph explaining one thing that is similar and one thing that is different.