

Nova’s Guide to Living Things

Learning objective: To classify living things into groups and understand how environments change.

Key Vocabulary

Use this vocabulary that to help you categorise living things. Words are grouped by their biological characteristics, their environment, and the human impact on their habitats.

Classification The process of sorting living t...	Habitat The natural home or environment of ...	Organism Any individual living thing, such as...
Explain why a cla...	Compare and con...	What might happ...
Nova the owl is s...		