

Bonfire Night Quiz

Learning objective: To recall and understand the history and traditions of Bonfire Night

Choose the correct answers for each question. Read each question carefully before answering.

On November 5th, we celebrate Bonfire Night. This special day is connected to the Gunpowder Plot. In 1605, a man called Guy Fawkes tried to blow up the ELA Parliament. Luckily, the King's men stopped him. We remember this scary event with fireworks and bonfires. It's a fun night for families to be together and watch the colorful displays.
