

Bonfire Night Writing Frame

Learning objective: To write a descriptive paragraph about Bonfire Night, including its traditions and significance.

Use this writing frame to help you structure your writing about Bonfire Night. Write in complete sentences and include descriptive words to make your writing engaging.

As the sun sets on November 5th, people all over the UK prepare for a very special night.

Word bank: However · In addition to · Meanwhile · Despite · Additionally · As a result · Similarly · Furthermore · In fact

1. The tradition of Bonfire Night began in 1605: (2 marks)

2. One of the most exciting parts of Bonfire Night is watching the fireworks: (2 marks)

3. In many towns and cities, people gather together to celebrate Bonfire Night: (1 mark)

Draw: Draw a picture of a Bonfire Night celebration, including fireworks and a giant bonfire.

Extension challenge: Imagine you are a time-traveler who has gone back to 1605 to experience the first Bonfire Night. Write a diary entry about what you saw and felt.