

Conjunctions Adventure

Learning objective: To understand and use conjunctions such as and, but, or in sentences.

Use the template to explore the use of conjunctions in sentences. You will write a short passage using conjunctions and answer some questions about it. At the end, you can illustrate your passage with a drawing.

Use conjunctions to join the following ideas:

- Pip loves reading books and _____.
- Max thinks puzzles are fun but _____.
- Ellie can remember anything but _____.
- Kit solves puzzles and _____.
- Zara sees patterns and _____.

Join these ideas into a sentence using conjunctions:

- Pip loves reading books but _____.
- Max thinks puzzles are fun and _____.
- Ellie can remember anything or _____.
- Kit solves puzzles but _____.
- Zara sees patterns and _____.

Word bank: and · but · or · example · sentence · conjunction · join · ideas

1. Write a sentence using the conjunction 'and' to join two of the ideas above. (2 marks)

2. Write a sentence using the conjunction 'but' to compare two of the ideas above. (2 marks)

3. Write a sentence using the conjunction 'or' to give two choices from the ideas above. (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of Pip, Max, Ellie, Kit, and Zara all playing together using conjunctions to describe what they are doing.

Extension challenge: Think of more sentences using conjunctions and try to write them using the conjunctions 'and', 'but', and 'or'.