

Writing a Report: Pip's Park Adventure

Learning objective: To understand the structure and content of a report, including a clear introduction, interesting details, and a conclusion.

Imagine Pip the bookworm caterpillar has gone on an adventure to write a report about what she discovered in the park. Draw a picture of Pip writing her report in the park. Include the following elements:

Draw: Draw a picture of Pip sitting at a picnic table in the park. She has a notebook and pencil, and is writing on a piece of paper. Include the following elements in your picture:

Label words: Introduction · Conclusion · Interesting Fact · Date · Weather

Steps:

1. What is the title of Pip's report?
2. When did Pip go to the park?
3. What did Pip discover in the park?
4. What does Pip write in her introduction?
5. What does Pip write in her conclusion?