

Human and Physical Geography Word Mat

Learning objective: To distinguish between human and physical geography and understand key geographical terms.

Key Vocabulary

Use this mat to help you understand the difference between the natural world (Physical Geography) and the world made by people (Human Geography). Finn the Dolphin has collected these key terms to help you map the world!

Physical Geogra... The study of natural fea...	Human Geograp... The study of how people...	Mountain A very high area of land with steep...
Valley A low area of land between hills or m...	River A natural flow of water that travels acr...	Coastline The area where the land meets th...
Climate The general weather conditions of a...	Vegetation The plants and trees that grow n...	Plateau A large area of high land that is relat...
Glacier A slow-moving river of ice formed by...	Settlement A place where people live, such ...	Urban Relating to a town or city.
Rural Relating to the countryside rather than...	Infrastructure The basic systems a country ...	Industry The production of goods in factories...
Land Use How people use the land, for exa...	Population The total number of people living...	Transport The systems used to move peopl...
Trade The buying and selling of goods and s...	Can you explain t...	Look at the list of...
Why is 'Infrastruc...	If a town grows a...	Imagine you are ...
Which physical f...		