

Ellie's Roman Empire Explorer Guide

Step into the past with Ellie the Elephant—uncover the secrets of the Romans!

- The Romans invaded Britain in AD 43, led by Emperor Claudius, and brought new laws, languages, and ways of building.
- Roman soldiers were organized into groups called legions, and they wore protective armour and carried large rectangular shields.
- The Romans built incredible aqueducts to carry fresh water from distant springs into their towns and busy marketplaces.
- Wealthy Romans lived in large country houses called villas, which often featured beautiful floors decorated with colorful stone mosaics.
- The Romans established Londinium, which grew from a small trading settlement into the bustling capital city we know as London.

Did you know? Did you know? The Romans introduced the first public baths, concrete, and even straight roads to Britain! Many of these roads are still used as the foundations for our highways today.
