

Grade 3: Outdoor Adventures Flashcards

Learning objective: To understand key vocabulary related to outdoor adventures.

Read the text on each card and learn the answers.

|                                                                                       |                                                                              |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Hiking                                                                         | Caving                                                                |
| What is hiking?                                                                       | A type of outdoor adventure that involves exploring hidden underground caves |
| What is a compass used for?                                                    | Geocaching                                                            |
| A compass is used for orientation and navigation while on an outdoor adventure        | A game where players use GPS coordinates to find hidden treasures            |
| What is camping?                                                               | Wildlife                                                              |
| A type of outdoor adventure where people sleep under the stars in a tent or a shelter | Animals that live in the wild                                                |
| What is first aid for in an outdoor adventure?                                 | Survival                                                              |
| First aid is the care and treatment given to a person who is injured or ill           | Being able to stay alive and healthy in the outdoors                         |
| What is a map used for?                                                        | What is the purpose of a water filter in the outdoors?                |
| A map is used for navigation and orientation while on an outdoor adventure            | A water filter is used to make drinking water safe and clean                 |