

Eid Celebration Quick Quiz!

Learning objective: To understand the meaning, traditions, and significance of Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha in Islam.

Help Max the monkey solve this math-style puzzle of a quiz! Read each question carefully and circle the correct answer. Good luck!

1. B, 2. True, 3. Ramadan, 4. B, 5. False, 6. Zakat, 7. B, 8. True, 9. Mosque, 10. B

1. What does 'Eid' mean in Arabic? A) Peace B) Festival* C) Prayer D) Fasting (1 mark)

2. True or False: Muslims usually wear their best clothes to celebrate Eid. (1 mark)

3. Eid al-Fitr happens at the end of which holy month of fasting? (1 mark)

4. Which Eid is known as the 'Festival of Sacrifice'? A) Eid al-Fitr B) Eid al-Adha* C) Eid al-Noor D) Eid al-Sama (1 mark)

5. True or False: During Ramadan, Muslims eat a big breakfast at 8am every day. (1 mark)

6. What is the Arabic word for giving to charity to help the poor? (1 mark)

7. What is a common greeting used during Eid? A) Happy Birthday B) Eid Mubarak* C) Namaste D) Shalom (1 mark)

8. True or False: Sharing food and visiting family is an important part of Eid. (1 mark)

9. Where do many Muslims go to perform a special community prayer on Eid morning? (1 mark)

10. Which of these might a child receive as a gift during Eid? A) A homework sheet B) Eidi (money or presents)* C) A clock D) A textbook (1 mark)

Draw: Draw a colorful picture of an Eid feast table with delicious treats and a 'Eid Mubarak' banner!

Extension challenge: Imagine you are inviting a friend to an Eid celebration. Write three sentences explaining what they can expect to see, eat, or do.