

Adjectives: Painting Pictures with Words!

Use adjectives to make your stories sparkle and shine!

- An adjective is a word that describes a noun, like 'shiny' or 'giant'.
- You can use adjectives to describe colours, such as 'golden' or 'bright blue'.
- Adjectives can tell us how many of something there are, like 'three' or 'several'.
- Use adjectives to describe feelings, like 'happy', 'nervous', or 'brave'.
- Sensory adjectives describe how things feel, taste, sound, or smell, like 'crunchy' or 'noisy'.

Did you know? Did you know? Adjectives act like colourful paintbrushes for your sentences. Instead of just saying 'the dog', you could say 'the fluffy, energetic dog'. Adding these descriptive words helps the reader imagine exactly what you are seeing in your mind!
