

Mastering Conjunctions with Max the Monkey

Learning objective: To identify and use a variety of subordinating and coordinating conjunctions to extend sentences, demonstrating a greater depth of understanding through complex grammatical structures.

Key Vocabulary

Use this vocabulary that to help Max the Monkey connect his mathematical puzzles into brilliant, descriptive sentences. The terms are categorised by their function: Coordinating Conjunctions (for joining two independent clauses) and Subordinating Conjunctions (for adding extra detail or cause).

Coordinating Con... Words used to connect...	Subordinating C... Words used to introduce...	Explain why a wri...
Compare and con...	Justify your ans... Does the sentence 'I we...	What might happ...
Rewrite this simp... 'The rain fell. We staye...	Create a complex...	