

Max and Zara's Storytelling Adventure

Let your imagination run wild and become a story superstar!

- Who is the main character in your story? Give them a name and tell us what they love to do.
- Where does your story happen? Describe your setting using a brilliant adjective, like 'sparkly', 'bumpy', or 'hidden'.
- What happens first? Use a capital letter at the start of your sentence and a full stop at the end.
- What is the problem your character faces? Is it a tangled kite or a missing map?
- How does your character solve the problem to save the day?
- How does your story end? Make sure everyone is happy and safe!

Did you know? Did you know? Every great story starts with a tiny 'what if' idea! Whether it is a monkey finding a lost treasure or a zebra painting the sky, your brain is the best place to find amazing adventures.

Key vocabulary: adjective · character · setting · sentence · capital letter · full stop · adventure