

Pip’s Guide to Inference: Reading Between the Lines

Learning objective: To understand and use inference to draw conclusions about characters and settings from a text.

Key Vocabulary

Use this word mat to help you look for clues in a story. Categorise your thinking into these three areas: Analysing Evidence, Character Clues, and Drawing Conclusions.

Pip says that 'infe...	If a character sla...	Define the term '...
Why is it importa...	If a story describ...	