

Super Sentences with Pip the Bookworm

Master the Art of the Perfect Sentence!

- Every sentence must start with a capital letter to show where it begins.
- A full stop (.) goes at the end of a sentence to show that the thought is finished.
- Use a question mark (?) when you are asking someone for information.
- An exclamation mark (!) adds excitement or shows that a character is shouting.
- Sentences must make sense on their own and contain a clear idea.

Did you know? Did you know? Every sentence is like a little train journey! A capital letter is the engine that starts the journey, and the punctuation mark at the end is the station where the train stops safely.
