- A synonym is a word that has the same, or nearly the same, meaning as another word. Using synonyms helps you avoid repeating the same words in your writing.
- Ambitious vocabulary is language that is more descriptive and precise than everyday words. For example, 'sprinted' is more vivid than 'ran'.
- Adjectives add detail to nouns. Instead of saying 'a nice house', you could describe 'a magnificent, crumbling mansion'.
- Connotation refers to the feeling a word gives. 'Stubborn' and 'determined' both mean you won't change your mind, but they feel very different!
- Always consider your audience. Use clear language for instructions, but use adventurous language when writing stories to capture your reader's imagination.
