

Rosa the Parrot's Body Part Bonanza!

Learning objective: To identify and recall French vocabulary for parts of the human body.

Join Rosa the parrot on a linguistic adventure! Answer these 10 questions to see how many French body parts you have mastered. Use the word bank to help you.

Answer Key: 1. A (la tête), 2. True, 3. False (it means the mouth), 4. le nez, 5. C (les yeux), 6. False (it means the leg), 7. la main, 8. True, 9. les oreilles, 10. le dos.

Word bank: la tête · le bras · la main · le pied · les yeux · le nez · la jambe · les oreilles · la bouche · le dos

1. 1. Rosa asks, 'What is the French for the head?' A) la tête* B) le pied C) la main D) le bras (1 mark)

2. 2. True or False: 'Le pied' translates to 'the foot'. (1 mark)

3. 3. True or False: 'La bouche' translates to 'the nose'. (1 mark)

4. 4. If you have a sniffle, which part of your body are you touching? (French word: _____) (1 mark)

5. 5. Which word refers to your eyes? A) le dos B) le bras C) les yeux* D) la jambe (1 mark)

6. 6. True or False: 'La main' translates to 'the leg'. (1 mark)

7. 7. You use this part to wave hello. What is 'the hand' in French? (1 mark)

8. 8. True or False: 'Le bras' translates to 'the arm'. (1 mark)

9. 9. Rosa says you need these to listen to her songs. What is 'the ears' in French? (1 mark)

10. 10. What is the French word for 'the back'? (1 mark)

Draw: Draw a friendly robot and label at least four body parts using the French vocabulary from the word bank.

Extension challenge: Write a short French sentence using one of the body parts, for example: 'J'ai deux mains' (I have two hands).