

Rosa's French Food Diary: Mon Journal de Cuisine

Learning objective: To use French vocabulary to describe food preferences, meals, and opinions using accurate sentence structures.

Help Rosa the parrot learn about your eating habits! Fill in the sections below using your French vocabulary. Remember to use 'J'aime' (I like), 'Je n'aime pas' (I do not like), and 'C'est délicieux' (It is delicious) to explain your choices.

Word bank: Le petit-déjeuner (breakfast) · Le déjeuner (lunch) · Le dîner (dinner) · J'aime (I like) · Je n'aime pas (I do not like) · C'est délicieux (It is delicious) · C'est sain (It is healthy) · Les fruits (fruit) · Les légumes (vegetables) · Le pain (bread)

1. Mon plat préféré : Write down your favourite meal in French and explain why you like it using a full sentence. (2 marks)

2. Le petit-déjeuner : Describe what you usually eat for breakfast. Use the word 'manger' (to eat). (2 marks)

3. Les goûts : Write two sentences about food you do not like, using 'Je n'aime pas'. (2 marks)

4. Le prix du marché : If an apple costs £0.50 (cinquante centimes) and a baguette costs £1.20 (une livre vingt), how much would they cost together in total? (2 marks)

5. Un repas sain : Rosa is learning about healthy eating. Write a short sentence in French about a healthy food item you enjoy. (2 marks)

Extension challenge: Imagine you are visiting a French market with Rosa. Write a dialogue between you and the shopkeeper to buy three items, including the prices in Australian dollars and cents.
