Step into Rosa the Parrot's vibrant world of languages—let's get chatting in French!

- When meeting someone for the first time, 'Enchanté' is the perfect word to express that you are pleased to make their acquaintance.
- Use 'Bonjour' during the day, but remember that 'Salut' is a friendly, informal greeting best saved for close friends and family.
- Asking 'Comment ça va?' is the standard way to enquire about someone's wellbeing in a French conversation.
- If you are speaking to a teacher or an adult you do not know well, use 'S'il vous plaît' to be extra polite when asking for something.
- To wrap up a conversation politely, 'Au revoir' is the classic, timeless way to say goodbye to anyone you meet.

Did you know? Did you know? In France, it is common to use 'Bonjour' even when entering a small shop or greeting a neighbour. It is considered a polite sign of respect to acknowledge others with a cheerful 'Bonjour' before starting a conversation!
