

Rosa's French Opinion Station

Master the art of sharing your thoughts in French with Rosa the Parrot!

- Fact 1: Use 'J'adore' to show that you have a strong passion for an activity or object.
- Fact 2: 'Je n'aime pas' is the standard way to politely state that you do not enjoy something.
- Fact 3: You can extend your sentences by using 'parce que', which means 'because', followed by a reason.
- Fact 4: Adjectives like 'génial' (great) or 'ennuyeux' (boring) help you describe exactly why you feel a certain way.
- Fact 5: When speaking French, remember that your tone of voice helps convey your enthusiasm, just like in English!

Did you know? Did you know? In French, when you say you like something, you often use 'le', 'la', or 'les' before the noun, such as 'J'aime le chocolat' (I like chocolate). Rosa says it is a brilliant way to practise your grammar while expressing your personality!
