

Max the Monkey's Busy Day Diary

Learning objective: To understand the sequence of events in a day and use time-related vocabulary to describe routines.

Help Max the Monkey keep track of his busy day! Think about what you do from the moment you wake up until you go to bed. Write or draw one thing you do in the morning, the afternoon, and the evening. Max loves to see how you spend your time!

Word bank: morning · afternoon · evening · first · next · then · finally · o'clock

1. Morning Routine: What is the first thing you do when you wake up? Tell Max about your breakfast or getting ready. (2 marks)

2. Afternoon Adventure: What do you do during the middle of the day? Think about playtime or lunch. (2 marks)

3. Evening Calm: What do you do to get ready for sleep? How does your day finish? (2 marks)

4. Time Check: If you could choose one time on a clock to have a party, what would it be? Write the time here. (2 marks)

5. Reflection: Which part of your day is your favourite and why? Max would love to know! (2 marks)

Extension challenge: Ask an adult to help you draw a clock face showing what time you usually go to bed. Can you show Max where the big hand and the little hand go?
