Learning About Islam with Pip the Bookworm

Learning objective: To identify and describe some of the key features, symbols, and practices associated with Islam in a respectful and simple way.

Help Pip the Bookworm learn about Islam! Use the word bank to help you fill in the boxes below. You can talk to your teacher or a partner about what you have learned, then draw a picture of a mosque or a special pattern to show your understanding.

Word bank: Mosque · Moon · Star · Prayer · Kindness · Qur'an

1. Where do Muslims go to pray and learn together? Write the name here: (2 marks)

2. What is the name of the holy book that Muslims read? (2 marks)

3. How many times a day do Muslims try to pray? (Hint: Think about your daily routine!) (2 marks)

4. What is a way you can show kindness to your friends, just like Muslims are taught to do? (2 marks)

5. Look at the symbol of the crescent moon and star. Why do you think these are important in the Islamic calendar? (2 marks)

Extension challenge: Find a partner and share one new fact you learned about Islam today. Can you draw a beautiful geometric pattern like the ones Pip saw at the mosque?
